ORDER:

The Collector & District magistrate .SPS Nellore has received a complaint from Sri Diddi Sriramulu, R/o Allur(V&M), SPS Nellore questioning the Perika (BC) caste status of Sri Dakavaram Bujjaiah, S/o Guravaiah, R/o Allur (V&M), SPS Nellore Dist. The Collector & District magistrate .SPS Nellore has requested the RDO, Kavali to make field enquiry regarding the caste status of Sri Dakavaram Bujjaiah. The RDO, Kavali has furnished the enquiry report stating that he has conducted Grama Sabha in Allur Village and the residents of village has stated that, Sri Dakavaram Bujjaiah belongs to Perika Caste as per their knowledge.

2. The Village Revenue Officer, Allur has stated that Sri D.Bujjaiah has been residing in the village for the last 30 years and he has matrimonial relations with the families having surnames Parisenati and Ramisetti. As per records, the persons having such surnames belongs Perika caste. The birth place of Sri D.Guravaiah, father of Sri D.Bujjaiah is Alurupadu of Kodavaluru(M) and they had migrated to Allur Village 30 years back. Sri D.Bujjaiah had also migrated to Allur village along with his father and residing there since then. The caste of some of the children of D.Guravaiah was mentioned as Baliya and for some other as Perika in Birth Register. Sri Degapudi Venkaiah, Grama Sarpanch of Alurupadu has stated that the people with surname Dakavaram belong to Perika Caste. He is very much familiar with the parents of Dakavaram Bujjaiah in Alurupadu (V). Their forefathers were migrated from Athmakuru (M) of Kurnool Dist., and Sri.D.Bujjaiah had his marriage in Allur and staying at Allur for the last 30 years.

3. The Panchayath Secretary, Alurupadu, Kodavaluru (M), Sri.Shaik Osman Ahmed has stated that the family members of Dakavaram are enjoying the social status as Perika for the last 30 years.
4. Sri K.Veeraiah, Rtd. Tahasildar had stated that he has worked as MRO from 1998 to 2002. He had issued Perika BC Caste Certificate to Sri.D.Bujjaiah basing on the recommendations of subordinate officers and also by conducting an inquiry. Smt.Parisinati Sri Laxmi Kumari, daughter-in-law of Sri D.Bujjaiah was also issued a temporary Perika BC Caste Certificate.
5. The enquiry officer had also recorded the statement of Sri.D.Bujjaiah. Sri.D.Bujjaiah has stated that, their ancestral residence was Erraguduru in Kurnool District. Later they settled in Alurupadu (V) in SPS Nellore District. His father was a Maistry. After his father's death, he was looked after by his maternal aunt at Allur (V) and married her daughter. He had matrimonial relations with the families having surnames of Parisineti and Ramiseti. Both of them are recognized as Perika a BC caste. He had contested in the elections in August, 2006 as the post of Sarpanch was allotted to BCs. He alleged that, Sri.D.Sriramulu leveled allegations due to old rivalry.
6. During the enquiry, Sri D.Bujjaiah and the petitioner Sri D.Sriramulu were invited to attend the enquiry by the RDO, Kavali. But, the complainant Sri D.Sriramulu did not attend the enquiry.
7. The RDO, Kavali has further stated that based on available records and as per the statement of the villagers, he is of the opinion that Sri.D.Bujjaiah belong to Perika caste. But, his father's caste was mentioned as Baliya in the Birth and Death Registers at Alurupadu. This has created an ambiguity in deciding as to whether Sri.D.Bujjaiah belongs to Perika BC or Baliya OC. The RDO recommended to the Collector, SPS Nellore to put the issue before District Level Scrutiny Committee.
8. After conducting of detailed enquiry, examining the reports of the Revenue Divisional Officer, Kavali, the DLSC has observed that the caste of an individual cannot be changed from OC Baliya to Perika BC by virtue of migration. While applying for Ration Card in Alluru Panchayat, Sri D.Bujjaiah has mentioned that he belong to Baliya caste in the application form. Basing on the facts, the DLSC has opined that Sri D.Bujjaiah had obtained false BC-Perika Caste Certificate from the MRO, Allur with an intention to contest in the elections of Gram Panchayat in which the Sarpanch post was reserved to BCs. The DLSC has recommended to cancel the false BC Caste Certificate obtained from the MRO, Allur vide Lr.No.85/2000, dt.28.12.2000 under AP SC, ST, BC Regulation of Issue of Community, Nativity and Date of Birth Certificate Act and G.O.Ms.No.58, SW (J) Dept., dt:12.5.1997.
